

SOCIAL AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

Miss Ruth Goewey, Park av., Herbert Paxton, Park av., and Norris Zeller, Colfax av., are spending the week end at Diamond lake, the South Bend guests of a house party given by Mrs. S. G. Eberhart of Mishawaka.

Miss Nellie Whiteman entertained Friday evening at a parcel shower in honor of Miss Olga Brehmer, whose marriage to Charles Whiteman will take place next Wednesday. The guests were pleasantly entertained with cards and music. At the close of the evening a supper was served. The rooms were appropriately decorated with festoons of red hearts and garden flowers were also used. The table center piece was pansies and sweet peas. On Monday evening the Children of Mary of St. Joseph's Catholic church will give a kitchen shower for her.

The Poinsette club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louise Van Eyra, 824 Osborn st. The time was spent at needlework. Light refreshments were served. Mrs. Ray Colburn of Erie, Pa., was the guest of honor. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. E. H. Weaver on Monroe st.

Mrs. S. C. Rockstroff, 1035 Sherman av., entertained the Neighborhood club Friday afternoon. During the social hour light refreshments were served. Miss Royle McDonald of New Carlisle was a guest of the club. In two weeks Mrs. Walter Bill, 124 N. Walnut, will entertain the circle.

PATTERNS FOR CUTTING LITTLE DRESSES FOR GIRL'S FIRST SCHOOL OUTFIT

DAUGHTER NEEDS FOUR NEW FROCKS

That Many Will Take Her Through School Clean and Comfortable.

BY CYNTHIA GREY.

You can make your daughter's school clothes after the same pattern that you use for your paper dolls. I have had the artist draw a little girl so that you will get the general size, then cut it out of twenty-seven-inch goods.

For a normal sized six-year-old girl the frock should be about a yard and a quarter about the bottom. Then make your sleeves according to diagram and sew them into the short kimono sleeves. Make little straight cuffs that will button tightly about the wrists and open the neck in a picket hole that can be buttoned up straight in front. You can belt this little simple dress either with a leather or fabric belt. You can cut it off about the bottom and sew on a straight scant pleating of the goods.

Don't let your little child in its first year at school wear anything but wash dresses. Make them out of blue and white, green and white, brown and white and black and white gingham. This will make a very pretty set of frocks and each one can be worn two days. Trim the black and white gingham with cords of turkey red and use red buttons and belt. Your own taste will suggest different styles of trimming. These little dresses will be warm enough to wear all winter.

Cotton Clothes Best. The best physicians say that it is harmful to dress a child too warmly and they recommend knitted cotton instead of wool underclothes. Union suits of moderately heavy knitted cotton can be purchased, but I like the little separate shirts and drawers.

Of course, every mother knows that drawers should be changed daily. If you take off the shirts at night and air them well, they can be worn for two days. Never allow your child to wear any clothing at night it wears in the daytime.

Six skirts, made of heavy cotton, buttoned on waists, three of which will be enough. Six pairs of long, square anted stockings, and comfortable shoes make—with the little gingham dresses—a splendid school wardrobe. The careful mother can buy all of these, outside of the shoes, for a five-dollar bill, if she makes the dresses, waists and skirts herself. If she launders and cares for these clothes they will last through the school year.

A little later one must add good overshoes, leggings, a warm coat and mittens. Remember that plenty of cotton clothes that can go in the wash tub, thus insuring cleanliness, are much better than two flannel suits which get dirty and breed disease. The school is always warm and you can teach your little child to run and exercise on the way to school.

CHANGE HOUR OF CONCERT TO 7:30

Sunday Programs to Start Earlier for Rest of the Season at Request of Public.

Sunday evening's concert at Howland park, as well as all other band concerts in the parks during the remainder of the season, will begin at 7:30 instead of 8 o'clock, the change being made at the request of the public.

A popular program has been arranged by Elbel's band for Sunday evening's concert with the exception of the overture, La Gazza Ladra. This is one of Rosini's beautiful works and very difficult for band. The program includes two comic opera selections by Hoshna, the "Three Twins," and "Bright Eyes." Both of these operas proved very popular with theater audiences. As an opening number the band will play one of Mr. Schaubroeck's popular marches, "Our City," and a medley of southern songs. The complete program follows: March, "Our City"; Schaubroeck Overture, "La Gazza Ladra"; Rosini Waltz, "Moonlight on the Hudson"; Selection, "The Three Twins"; Hoshna Idyll, "Blumengefluester"; Von Blon Medley "The Sunny South"; Lampe Serenade, "A Fairy Tale"; Dalbey Selection, "Bright Eyes"; Hoshna Finale.

Gus Elbel, Conductor.

WILL START WORK TODAY

On Saturday members of the congregation of Hope chapel gathered to raise the new church. The excavation and walls have been completed and the studding cut for the sides. Most of the work of the new church is being done by the congregation. Rev. W. Allison will preach Sunday at the Lincoln school. The new pastor is staying with Rev. John S. Burns, pastor of the Trinity Presbyterian church, since he arrived in the city.

will deliver an address on the subject, "American Morals." The club women will be entertained at a tea following the afternoon session Monday and at a garden party Tuesday afternoon.

A Writer—a Best Seller Writer—had just finished a New Story—and Mrs. Writer had but concluded reading the manuscript.

"How do You like it?" inquired the Mister.

"Oh, it's good, so so," was the reply.

"Do You like the start? There's action there."

"Yes, it gets away with a Dash."

"How about the Climax and the Finish?"

"All right, but aren't you afraid there's too much Filling?"

Just so with many a Story and just so with many a Business Talk. There's too much Filling—too much Middle—in Advertising.

That's what we Cut Out—there's no "Monotoning" here over Unimportant Details.

Fact is there's no "Monotoning" about the Ellsworth Store—it's a Real Store, full of Real People who Sell Real Merchandise. With us it's Action from Start to Finish.

DR. THOMSON'S EYE TALKS

(TALK NO. 163.)

To One Side.

If you find that you can see better by turning the head to one side or by looking obliquely through your glasses, they do not fit you. It is always a sign of astigmatism. With correctly fitted lenses you can see better straight ahead than in any other way. If you have a habit of holding the head toward one shoulder in walking it is an indication of weak eye muscles. One eye has a tendency to raise above the other, and tilting the head brings them level. If you can read easier by holding your book to one side glasses will relieve the difficulty. I make a specialty of glasses for complicated defects of the eye. If there are several defective conditions I have the glasses so ground that they will be all corrected. I do not charge for examination.
